1.	Southwest Virginia Professional Educators Consortium	The SWVAPEC was developed in 1998 to formalize the collaborations between PK-12 schools in the New River and Roanoke Valleys and regional institutions of higher education. The purpose of the consortium is to enhance teacher preparation and continuing teacher education by identifying and helping meet the needs of the K-12 schools.	To develop a cadre of clinical faculty who are exemplary models of effective teaching and strong mentors for student teachers and new teachers; to develop and nurture exemplary leadership abilities and instructional practice; to facilitate greater cooperation and communication among members of the consortium; to create a community of life-long inquiry into learning; to teach and promote the development of school cultures that promote life-long learning for all members of the communities.	Hollins University, Radford University, Roanoke College, Virginia Tech, Botetourt Co., Carroll Co., Floyd Co., Giles Co., Montgomery Co., Pulaski Co., Radford City, Roanoke City, Roanoke Co., Salem City, and Wythe Co. schools.	Yes
2.	Science Museum - Field Experience	Hollins has worked closely with the Science Museum of Western VA in Roanoke to expose them to diverse teaching opportunities. Hollins faculty member and science educator Professor Rebecca Reiff has set up field experiences for education students to observe outreach programs, to volunteer as docents for various exhibits, to explore exhibit design, and to staff summer science camps.	With increased accountability, the schools need teachers who are highly qualified, particularly in high need areas as the sciences often are.	Hollins University and the Science Museum of Western VA.	No
3.	Internship Experience	The purpose is to acquaint the prospective teacher with the realities of classroom life and prepare him/her for the full semester student teaching experience.	Local schools need highly qualified teachers. The internship is one of the integral steps in preparing our graduates to fill that need.	Roanoke City	No
4.	Student Teaching Experience	This capstone experience takes place in area schools to further develop understanding of the principles of learning; the application of skills in discipline-specific methodology; communication processes; classroom management; selection and use of resources; evaluation of pupil performance; as well as current and legal issues in education.	Local schools need highly qualified teachers and the student teaching experience is the final step in preparing our graduates to fill that need.	Botetourt County, Roanoke County, and Salem City.	No
